

30 March 45

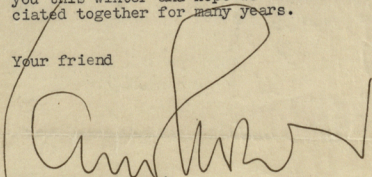

Mr. Roman Totenberg
333 Central Park West
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Totenberg

Please forgive me for having kept the $20.00 so long that you kindly lent me. It was stupid of me to come out without any money - but then you have to make up your mind to the fact that your conductor is very stupid, above all, about such things.

I've enjoyed every minute of working with you this winter and hope we will be associated together for many years.

Your friend

Leopold Stokowski
40 East 88th Street
New York 28, New York

ENC.